

RecordLink EULA

GENERAL

The products available for download from our web site are governed by this licence agreement and our Standard Terms and Conditions. By installing the software, or any update to it, you agree to the terms in this agreement and our Standard Terms and Conditions found at www.cohesionsoftware.co.uk/TermsAndConditions.pdf.

RECORDLINK and its intellectual property are protected by international copyright treaties. This software program is licenced, not sold.

Upon purchase, you will receive a Product Key which you will use to obtain an annual licence and activate the program. Use of the Product Key prevents transferring the software to another school.

The licence and rights are non-transferable.

PRIVACY

We will never give or sell to any third party any personal information we collect without your consent, unless required to do so by law. We respect your privacy and will protect it to the same extent we protect our most valuable information.

WARRANTY

Connector Lab Limited warrants that your RECORDLINK software will perform substantially in accordance with the provided documentation for the period of the licence.

In the event of changes in SIMS .net, Connector Lab. will make a reasonable effort to bring the software into conformance with SIMS .net and to provide you with a corrected version as soon as possible. If your software ceases to perform correctly check the website for an upgraded version.

Support is available from your reseller or on the website.

We periodically release free updates to currently-supported software and make these updates available via web download. We recommend that you keep your installation current, and we may require the latest update for a particular product be installed to process certain support requests. We reserve the right to limit support, updates and fixes to our latest released version only.

This warranty is void if the software failure has resulted from abuse, accident, or misapplication.

Connector Lab liability is limited to refund of the money paid for the software and in no event will we be liable for any indirect or consequential damages that may arise (including damages for loss of information, or financial losses).

POLICY STATEMENT

These are our current policies - we are free to change these at any time by posting changes to our web site. Note that the privacy statement is part of the licence agreement above, and as such the terms in effect as described for the licence govern privacy issues. This prevents us from changing the privacy policy except when you obtain an update or download of the product.

We hope you enjoy using RECORDLINK products and look forward to your feedback on the Discussion board.
